AGENCY BY DESIGN

An Educator's Playbook

HERE'S THE BOOK YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR:

A practical guide - from theory to action in simple steps

This resource combines theory with real-life practical steps from educators who, like you, want to create better learning experiences for their students.

Agency By Design: An Educator's Playbook is here to help you create learning environments that empower students and prepare them for the future.

This is ideal guide for professional learning programmes at school or syndicate level. Each chapter is complete with information, tools and guidance to help with implementation.

This is the book I wish I'd had when I started my new school.
